FPPC Agenda Includes Committee Names—Reporting Requirements

The Fair Political Practices Commission on Thursday (April 12) will act on a regulation requiring a candidate's name to appear as part of the official name of his or her controlled committee. Discussion of a second proposed regulation and the monthly enforcement calendar are also among the items listed in the agenda.

The commission's regular monthly meeting begins at 10:00 a.m. in the FPPC's eighth-floor hearing room at 428 J St. (Fifth and J Streets) in Sacramento.

The commission will consider requiring all candidates to include their last name in the identification of their controlled committee. In instances where a committee is controlled by more than one candidate the last name of each candidate would be included in the committee name. If approved, these changes will apply to all candidate-controlled committees established on or after July 1, 2007. (See agenda item #11).

Commission staff will discuss a proposed regulation requiring online disclosure of contributions or independent expenditures of $5,000 or more made to certain committees supporting or opposing one or more state ballot measures. (See agenda item #12.)

The agenda and supporting memoranda and materials are posted on the FPPC's website at www.fppc.ca.gov. Just click on "Agendas" on the left side of the home page and go to "Current Agenda." The agenda is posted on the website 10 days before the meeting, and letters commenting on agenda items are also posted when received.
